

Contract of Promises

As an Acton Eagle I promise to...

Be positive, to be curious, and to keep an open mind.

Be honest and always speak the truth.

Be myself even when it is difficult.

Relentlessly pursue my “next adventure” so I can find my own special place.

Always do my best work, and follow through on my promises, every time.

Hold my fellow travelers accountable and help them on the path to success, and never give up on myself or my fellow travelers.

Respect others, their choices, differences, and beliefs.

Never accept snarkiness, poor sportsmanship, or bullying of any kind.

When I fall short, fail or make mistakes, as I surely will do, I promise to keep a growth mindset and try even harder.
